Ignoring the legends of the 'unbeatable' Leaf Blower (a glass hammer army that became a synonym for overpowered after it was allowed to go first against players who didn't use reserves ten times in a row), an codex that either did very well or was destroyed has just got even more reliant on player skill in 6th edition. The fate of the Imperial Guard will now often come down to how well the player can manage to take distant objectives without showing the opponent's guns the 75% of ...
