The Complete Works of Edgard Varese Volume 1 (there was no Volume 2) is thrilling to listen to and still has extraordinary power but it must have sounded like music from another planet to most people when it was originally released in 1950. This CD is a must for hard-core Zappa fans and anyone else who enjoys adventures in sound.

Same with Chailly's Mahler cycle with the Conertgebouw. Now he tackles one of the more challenging composers of the 20th century and delivers exciting and listenable performances of Varese's complete works. The major works like Arcana, Ameriques, Deserts and Ionisation stand up well against the Boulez performance of these pieces with Chicago.
